GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Of track work at Memphis Saturday the Commercial-Appeal says:

"The success of Charles Patterson with the early training of two-year-olds during the past four years is fresh in the memory of those who have followed the career of Suisun, Ornament, Hamburg, Howland and May Hempstead. Out of a barn full of aristocratic juveniles, offsprings of Kingston, Bramble, Lamplighter, Prince Royal and Rossington, the most conspicuous to show this year is the bay colt McMeekin, by Fonso—Daisy Rose. The work of this colt has been published from time to time, and conservative judges have predicted that McMeekin would prove to be the best of the younger division now at Montgomery Park. Patterson has stated that McMeekin has done fully as creditable work in his trials as Hamburg did in '97. McMeekin was brought out yesterday morning, and, with Jesse Everett up, negotiated five furlongs in the astonishing time (for Montgomery Park track) of 1:03. The first half was made in :49. Everett weighs within a pound or two of 100 at present. Benita Brush, the full sister of Ben Brush, breezed four furlongs in :51.

"Descado, b. c. 2, by Teuton—Thelma, belonging to Keene & Ryan, a small but select stable, including Braw Lad, worked four furlongs in :51 1-2. Cherry Leaf, a Montgomery Handicap candidate, was breezed a mile in less than 1:52, and Wilson went a mile in 1:46. Meadowthorpe stepped six furlongs in 1:18, and The Kentuckian was galloped a mile in 1:49 1-4."

"Lady Contrary, winner of the Lightning Stakes at New Orleans recently, is considered the best two-year-old shown at the Crescent City track this season," said a horseman who has just arrived from the south. "Lady Contrary was 'prepped' over the Memphis track, and when taken to New Orleans she stepped five-eighths in 1:02. Her stable companion, Triaditza, a two-year-old also, ran five-eighths in 1:03, after getting off badly. She is a good filly also, but hardly as fast as Lady Contrary. The latter is a bay, by Russell—Lady McNairy, the dam of the speedy Lady Britannic, who used to race around the Fair Grounds two years ago. Triaditza is a bay filly by Russell—Bulgaria. J. C. Cahn's recent purchase, Silver Fizz, is supposed to be faster than either of the Morris pair. Doctor Riddle, the Iroquois—Taffeta colt in J. J. McCafferty's stable, is supposed to be one of the best colts at the Crescent City track. He ought to be something more than a selling plater. O. G. Parke's fast filly, Musy Chica, has a world of speed, but they have plenty of that kind at Memphis. Musy Chica is at Montgomery Park with the rest of the Parke stable. I think that Parke has a sleeper under cover in Bessie Macken, a two-year-old bay filly by Gallantry—Betty W. This filly is a half sister to the sensational Pearl Barnes. Parke brought Pearl Barnes up the line last spring and she simply spreadeagled everything. She was unbeatable until she struck Black Venus in a stake at Harlem. Bessie Macken will probably make her debut in the Ardelle Stakes at Memphis. Frank Reagan's Alex is a clumsy, big colt. Great things were expected of him, but he has been a disappointment up to date."—St. Louis Republic.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals rendered a decision Saturday of some importance to the Latonia, Louisville and Newport clubs. Judge Burnham handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Kenton Circuit Court in the case of the Latonia Agricultural and Stock Association against G. E. Donnelly, tax collector, and holding that racetracks in the State are liable for franchise taxation under Section 4077 of the Kentucky statutes. The opinion holds that the sale of pools is an important and exclusive privilege and comes within the franchise statutes. The Latonia and other Associations under this decision, are placed upon the same terms as water companies, gas companies, etc., and will be required to report to the State Board of Valuation regarding its earnings, upon which the franchise tax is based.

The following announcement sent out Saturday by Mr. G. H. Crickmore, clerk of the course, tells a story that will please and interest the owners of cross-country horses:

"The Westchester Racing Association announces a steeplechase, to be run during the autumn meeting at Morris Park, to be known as the Champion Steeplechase. To which $8,000 will be added, $5,000 by subscriptions of gentlemen interested in steeplechases, and $3,000 by the association, which, with the entrance and starting moneys will make a race of the value of $10,000. The distance, about three miles and a half, will include twice over the water. The details as to weights and when the race shall close, will be duly announced.

"The race is guaranteed to be run annually for five years, beginning the present year."

Of the horses in preparation on the tracks near New York a special to a St. Louis newspaper says:

"Preparations for a season of rattling good racing are going on despite the dilatory spring. In the district adjacent to New York something like a thousand head of thoroughbred horses are beginning regular work. They comprise such sterling handicap material as Tillo, Peep o'Day, Den d'Oro, St. Cloud, Octagon, Plaudit, George Keene, Scottish Chieftain, The Huguenot, Pink Coat, Handball, Warrenton, Banastar, Candleblack, George Boyd, St. Callatine, Swiftmas and Sanders. Further west are Ben Holladay, Algol, Previous and the fleet mare Imp, each in turn threatening an avalanche of new time records, and on the Pacific Coast, about ready to ship east, are Briar Sweet, Fleur de Lis, Bendoran and many other clever performers.

"There are enough good three-year-olds out this year to provide entries to a meeting exclusively for animals of this age, should the Jockey Club feel like authorizing one. Martinmas, last year's Futurity Stakes champion, is tramping down snow banks in Canada; Jean Berand has let down and lengthened until he resembles what the Hibernian gentleman once described as a 'big little horse'; Autumn has wintered so well that the Morris Park season will not be going long before he is up to a bruising contest; Ethelbert and Lackland (formerly Frohsinn) are keeping him company, and Filon d'Or exhibits no trace of the lameness that necessitated his retirement early last summer.

"Mr. Clay, Black Venus, High Degree and Toluca are out on Long Island, at the Westbury farm of Mr. Whitney, where the former has furnished and developed into a magnificent type of the thoroughbred. Black Venus is further advanced at this writing than Toluca, but friends of the stable think the chestnut filly will later on hold her own in the matter of speed trials with the lady of the dusky coat. Satin Slipper and Greatland are material from which M. F. Dwyer expects much. The latter is receiving an Aqueduct preparation, while the former will be in fine fettle for Morris Park in May. Miller and Halftime are P. J. Dwyer's best. The Fleischmann trio—Alpen, Dr. Eichberg and Sir Hubert—could, if necessary, go to the barrier in trim within a fortnight. Alpen will probably develop into a rare sprinter. Lethario, Rhineland and Cormorant are steady companions of Tillo. The first named may be rated as closely approaching first-class."

King Barleycorn is due to reach his Sheephead Bay home tomorrow afternoon. By winning the first of the spring Derbys at New Orleans last Saturday King Barleycorn has incurred penalties in the Metropolitan, Brooklyn, Suburban and Brighton handicaps. Allotted 104 in the Metropolitan he picks up four pounds additional, and his Suburban impost of 100 pounds is increased to 108. As there are no penalties attached to the Carter Handicap he may elect to start in it April 17, carrying 110 pounds.

John Rodegap, the veteran horseman, and popular Henry McDaniel will ship their stables from Lexington to Newport in a few days. These two well known owners will stay in this neighborhood all summer. Rodegap has fourteen head in his string, and McDaniel's charge consists of twenty-five horses, the property of several different owners.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Louisville Courier Journal of Sunday says: "H. Eugene Leigh, the well known trainer, who is handling a big string at Churchill Downs, is said to have won $3,500 yesterday on Lady Ellerslie, which won the first race at New Orleans. Mr. Leigh's money was posted in the various poolrooms in cities within a short distance of Louisville."

Jockey C. Combs' suspension has been continued indefinitely by the New Orleans racing stewards and revocation of his license will probably follow. This boy had sufficient skill to have made a good jockey, but an unruly temper and bad associations have destroyed what appeared at one time to be a promising career.

Secretary Hopper calls attention of owners to the fact that declarations from the Latonia Derby, Himyar Stakes and Oaks for 1899 are due April 1. The declaration fee in the Derby is $30, in Himyar and Oaks, $20 each. All wishing to declare out must do so by April 1.

R. C. Doggett has his old campaigner Doggett and three two-year-olds in training. The list is: Doggett, ch. h. 7, by The Bard—Rosewood, Laureatea, b. f. 2, by Laureate—Garoga. Pennyweight—b. c. 2, by Lord Esterling—Gypsy Maid.

Reward, ch. c. 2, by Potomac—Posthorn.

James Rowe will train and run the following horses in his own name this year:

The Huguenot, ch. c. 4, by Knight of Ellerslie—Moss Rose.

The Benedict, b. c. 2, by Faverdale—Sweet Home.

Chacomac, b. c. 2, by Juvenal—Loetitia.

Lingerie, b. f. 2, by Juvenal—Chemise.

Grand Dame, b. f. 2, by Faverdale—Stately.

Bay filly, 2, by Uncas—Suspense.

Louis Stuart has the following seven horses for this year's campaign:

Hooli, ch. c. 3, by Hindoo—La Esmeralda.

Rockdove, b. f. 3, by Kinglike—Stonecrop.

Mourie, blk. f. 3, by Charaxus—Jennie Keene.

Stuart, b. c. 2, by Faverdale—Pilgrimage.

Bonnie Lizzie II., ch. f. 2, by Uncas—Wyan-dotte.

Chandelier, ch. f. 2, by Faverdale—Knick Knack.

Chiming Bells, ch. f. 2, by Uncas—Emelia.

F. C. O'Reilly has four horses in training, all of which are from his once noted mare Connemara. They are:

Kinvarra, b. h. 5, by Verger—Connemara.

Whistling Con, ch. c. 4, by Whistle Jacket—Connemara.

Ineenamara, b. f. 3, by Darebin—Connemara.

Killashandra, ch. f. 2, by Goldfinch—Connemara.

PROSPECTS AT MEMPHIS.

A competent observer who has been in Memphis for some time writes to DAILY RACING FORM as follows concerning the horses now in training for the leading events of the coming meeting at Montgomery Park:

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 28.

The opening of the nineteenth annual spring meeting of the New Memphis Jockey Club is less than two weeks off. Over five hundred crack thoroughbreds are already stabled at the track, while others are coming from Louisville, Nashville, New Orleans, Little Rock and other points. Every available stall within a radius of a mile of the park has been engaged and secretary Macfarlan recently secured permission to stable outside horses at Billings Park, a half mile trotting track, which can accommodate two hundred horses. The Montgomery Handicap will be decided on the opening day. Indications point to the following starters:

Algol.....	126	Imp.....	114
Manuel.....	107	Clay Poynter.....	105
George B. Cox.....	104	Cherry Leaf.....	103
Crocket.....	103	Banished.....	102
J. H. C.....	102	Kittie B.....	100
Dunois.....	100	Jolly Roger.....	100
George Krats.....	100	Belle of Memphis.....	98
Buckvidere.....	98

Algol is in good condition—a mile in 1:47 galloping is his best work. Manuel's prep has been about the same, Dunois is already fit as a fiddle, as are Clay Poynter, Cherry Leaf, J. H. C. and Belle of Memphis. George Krats has worked remarkably well, Imp is still at Chillicothe, Ohio; Buckvidere, Crocket, George B. Cox and Banished have been working faithfully and are on edge to receive the final trial in a few days. The coming week will see them all set down, and the question asked them: "Will you do?"

On Monday following the Montgomery, the Tennessee Oaks will be run. The probable starters are:

Freak.....	117	Matanza.....	117
Souchon.....	117	Gay Parisienne.....	117
May d'Or.....	117	Florence Austin.....	117
Our Nellie.....	117	Chimura.....	117
May Hempstead.....	117	Lizzie Kelly.....	117

P. Tomlinson has the E. S. Gardner filly Freak in good condition. J. J. Marklein trains Matanza and though she looks a trifle thin her trainer is confident of her winning. Stever thinks Lizzie Kelly has only Souchon to fear, while T. J. McHale's Our Nellie looks and acts good. Dick Stickney's orders are to send Florence Austin to the post as fit as he can make her. Abe Cahn keeps May d'Or under cover but will have her ready in time. Ed Brown, Robert Tucker and H. Eugene Leigh have Souchon, Gay Parisienne and May Hempstead at Louisville, but have indicated that they will send their charges after the Tennessee Oaks.

The third important event of the meeting is the Tennessee Derby, worth something like $7,000 to the winner. The probabilities are:

W. Overton.....	122	The Kentuckian.....	122
Fausturo.....	122	The Barrister.....	122
Onomastus.....	122	Deering.....	122
Hittick.....	122	Sir Gatan.....	122
Leo Planter.....	122	The Pride.....	119

The Kentuckian is still favorite. After he had breezed a mile in 1:47 his stock went up. It had been rumored about the track that the son of Pirate of Penzance was only a sprinter, but his easy breeze of a mile turned the tide of sentiment. W. Overton has done nothing remarkable in the way of work, but George Walker, his trainer, seems to think the colt will win easy. Onomastus, Leo Planter, Fausturo, The Barrister, Sir Gatan and The Pride are going along nicely, but no attempt has been made to give them any real hard work, their respective trainers being satisfied to let them take their time.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

'Gene Leigh is rejoicing over a new acquisition. It is the first of Lazzarone's get, just been dropped in Kentucky, the dam being Arrow-grass, one of the two La Belle stud mares that were retained by Mr. Leigh when he sold his horses at La Belle. The colt is a great big lusty fellow, and Leigh is greatly pleased.

Constant Reader, Chicago. Elmer S. and Hittick were not coupled in the place and show betting on the Crescent City Derby at the track.
It was 6 to 1 against Hittick place and 8 to 1
Elmer S. place.

A FEW YEARLIES FOR SALE.

Some of the many courteous men who study
DAILY RACING FORM have sent enough back numbers of the monthlies to make up five more copies of Yearly Racing Form. The book is a glory. Nothing like it in the way of racing literature was ever published before. Within its 3,500 pages are full charts of regular racing
from January 1, 1898—No. 3492—to December 31, 1898—No. 10186. That means the full charts of 6,694 races. Yearly Racing Form is luxuriously bound in heavy morocco covers.

It's index runs from January 1, 1897 to December 31, 1898—two years—and is on linen paper with a lettered thumb index.

The first book of this class was built for the editor of DAILY RACING FORM. It served him so well that all the spare sheets of 1898 form were bound into annuals of the same type.
Five are being made up and are for sale at $20 per copy. The few books will be sold on the order of application.
